

Agenda
Day I | Wednesday May, 17

The Casino
195 East Delaware Place | Chicago, IL

Cultural Activity

The largest city in the Midwest, Chicago is a sprawling mixture of innovative architecture, fine dining, outstanding accommodations, lively nightclubs and theaters, and world-class museums. Famed for its modern sculpture by Picasso, Calder, Chagall, and Miro in monumental downtown plazas, Chicago is also distinguished by its symphony, opera, and sports teams -- the Bulls, Bears, Cubs, (2005 World Series Champions) White Sox, and Blackhawks.

Take advantage of Chicago's numerous attractions during your visit.

6:00 p.m.

Opening dinner at The Casino, a private club

Keynote Speaker, Dr. Maria Rosa Menocal

R. Selden Rose Professor in Spanish and Director of the Whitney Humanities Center and of Special Programs in the Humanities, Yale University
