CAREER DEVELOPMENT

Come to Chicago Harris for the next generation of leadership

When you recruit at the University of Chicago’s Harris School of Public Policy, you have access to students and alumni who are internationally recognized for their ability to ask the right questions, collect and analyze the toughest data, and craft the most effective and efficient evidence-based solutions.

Employers consistently return to Chicago Harris to identify candidates with the research, analytical, communication, and managerial skills to succeed – whether in the private, public or nonprofit sector – and we want to include your organization in our on-campus recruiting program!

Our skilled CDO team will work with you to:

- Identify top talent for international and domestic internship and full-time opportunities
- Post positions, screen applicants, and view student and alumni resumes
- Promote your organization through on-campus recruitment, information sessions, and career-oriented events

Resources for professional development

We offer a wide range of resources to help students refine their professional skills and search for career opportunities: career counseling, workshops, career-focused events, networking opportunities, and our online jobs database.

Please contact the Career Development Office to promote your organization’s internships and/or full-time opportunities to Chicago Harris students and alumni.

Chicago Harris Alumni Careers Network

The Alumni Careers Network is a comprehensive database of Chicago Harris and University of Chicago alumni who have generously volunteered to share career information and advice with students. The CDO also partners with the Office of Alumni Relations and Development in organizing numerous networking opportunities from employer information sessions to formal dinners with alumni and Chicago Harris constituents.

Who’s tapping our talent?

“It’s easy to ask questions with a survey. It’s much harder to use the responses to gain insights and dig into unexpected issues. That kind of quick, critical thinking is a hallmark of Chicago Harris graduates. It’s why we keep hiring them.”
